

“Love Does: God’s Story Your Story”

Greg Wendschlag January 8, 2017

What are the stories that have changed your life?

“Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: “Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of His Christ. For the accuser of our brothers, who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down. They overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink back from death. Therefore rejoice, you heavens and you who dwell in them!” Rev. 12:10-12

4 Outcomes of God’s Story and Our Story

1. Salvation
2. Power
3. Kingdom of God
4. Authority over the accuser
5. Rejoicing!

Living the story vs Telling the story

- Your story is the story of God giving you life.
- Your story has given those that know you life.
- Telling your story can give countless people life.

The reach of your story

- Your story encourages people.
- Your story gives people faith.
- Your story gives people hope.
- Your story moves people to action.

“How can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? And how can they preach unless they are sent? As it is written, “How lovely are the feet of those who bring good news.”” Romans 10:14-15
